WHAT IS THE CAIE?

The Conference of the Americas on International Education (CAIE) is an essential forum for stakeholders in Higher Education that fosters fruitful dialogues and debates, aiming to contribute to the internationalization and quality of Higher Education. The CAIE allows decision makers and professionals to exchange and examine various public policies, as well as diverse models, paradigms, consolidated best practices, challenges and the latest trends emerging from the international education sector, while generating meaningful contacts for institutional collaboration.

The previous CAIE editions counted with the participation of 3616 delegates from 53 countries and have become a common space that promotes the enhancement of academic collaboration in the continent.

Previous Editions:

- > 2010 - Canada (Calgary)
- > 2012 - Brazil (Rio de Janeiro)
- > 2013 - Mexico (Monterrey)
- > 2015 - Ecuador (Quito)

WHO WILL PARTICIPATE IN CAIE CANADA-2017?

- > Governmental leaders and key stakeholders in the higher education field;
- > Representatives of international organizations;
- > University Presidents, Vice-Presidents, and professionals;
- > Directors of International Relations Offices;
- > Academics, professors, and experts.

For the second time, Canada will be hosting the CAIE with its fifth edition that will be held from October 11th to 13th, 2017 in the city of Montreal.

The CAIE Canada-2017 is organized by the Inter-American Organization for Higher Education (IOHE-OUI), who acts as the Executive Secretariat, in collaboration with its associated members: AASCU, ADRU, AIEA, AMPEI, ANUIES, ANUT, ASCUN, ASUP, AUF, AUGM, BCCIE, CAMPUS Puerto Rico, CBIE-BCEI, CCID, CCYK, CEUB, CIN, CLADEA, CONAHEC, CONARE, CRP, CRUB, CRUCH, CSUCA, FAUBAI, Fédération de cégeps, FIMPES, Grupo de Universidades Iberoamericanas La Rábida, IIE, LASPAU, ReLARIES, UDUAL, UNICA, Universities Canada and YACHAY E.P.

The National Committee is coordinated by the Université du Québec à Montréal (UQAM), in collaboration with Concordia University, McGill University, Université de Montréal and École de technologie supérieure.

The CAIE Canada-2017 will address a set of strategic themes that are important for the Higher Education in the Americas.

PARTICIPATING IN CAIE ALLOWS YOU TO:

- > Participate in a vast array of academic activities, such as plenary sessions, workshops and concurrent sessions;
- > Take advantage of the multiple networking opportunities, that aim to develop and strengthen institutional alliances and collaborations;
- > Learn about new experiences, best practices, and latest trends within the internationalization as well as doctoral studies and research;
- > Gain visibility by promoting your institution's programs among all the delegates and participants.

The CAIE is presented by an alliance of university organizations at the national, regional and Inter-American level, which are dedicated to improving the quality of Higher Education, and to creating mechanisms that promote knowledge and experiences related to the internationalization.
